UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NORTHERN DIVISION AT KNOXVILLE

IN RE:

KEVIN L. TRENT,

Case No. 19-bk-31431-shb

Chapter 7

Debtor.

PROTECTIVE ORDER PERTAINING TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION
AND DOCUMENTS HOMETRUST BANK OBTAINS FROM DEBTOR'S ACCOUNTANTS

The parties agree and it is hereby ORDERED by the Court that all information and documents pertaining to Debtor, Kevin L. Trent, and Debtor's non-filing spouse, Julianna R. Trent, produced by Crane Thompson & Jones, PC, and Stewart & Wheeler, PC to Hometrust Bank's (hereinafter "Creditor") counsel in this bankruptcy case, by or through agreement, discovery, or subpoena (the "Confidential Information"), shall be kept private and confidential by Creditor, Creditor's counsel and experts, and other persons connected with the Creditor in this pending action who have a bona fide need to see said documents and information.

Unless otherwise agreed between the parties, Creditor, Creditor's counsel and experts, and other persons having access to the Confidential Information allowed by this Order shall not use the Confidential Information for any purposes other than use in this pending bankruptcy case and the related bankruptcy case styled In re Gary W. Wyatt; Bankruptcy Case No. 3:19-bk-32198-SHB also pending in this Court, including, without limitation, use for hearings, depositions, motions or other pleadings filed in connection therewith or in any matter arising thereunder and for use in connection with any claim or litigation related to the Confidential Information.

Creditor shall maintain a record of persons to whom any Confidential Information is disclosed. Creditor shall advise such persons that they are under a duty by this Order to keep such Confidential Information confidential.

In the event the parties have a disagreement over the interpretation or scope of this Order, either party may file a written objection and seek a hearing date over any dispute.

Notwithstanding the above, Creditor, at any time, may request that this Court enter an Order broadening the scope of use of the Confidential Information.

The terms of this Order shall survive any final disposition of this case.
